Complex Storybook	Noisy Nora by Rosemary Wells
Goals for Read 1	Push In and Connect Key Events
	Push-In Story Problem and Target Vocabulary

Read 1: STATE

STATE: Show cover illustration and identify title and author. The title of the book is Noisy Nora and the author, or the person who wrote the story, is Rosemary Wells.

STATE: Purpose of Read 1. This little mouse is called Noisy Nora because she makes so much noise. I wonder why Nora is so noisy when she is with her family. Let's read and find out.

Read 1: TEACH

TEACH: Push-in story problem that's connected to the story purpose by using the think-aloud strategy (I wonder, I noticed, I was thinking....). This is where you can turn back to previous pages to connect events and infer the story problem. Oh, now I know the problem. Remember back at the beginning of the story (turn page back) when... Nora's parents are busy giving her brother and sister attention, Nora feels ignored. To get attention she makes a lot of noise.

TEACH: Push-in and connect key events that relate to the story problem.

Page #	Events	Page #	Previous Event/Explanation
4	I noticed that Nora made a lot of noise banging on the window, slamming the door, and dropping marbles. You know what I think. I think Nora is making all this noise so that her parents will pay attention to her.	1,2,3	Notice how Nora's parents are giving all their attention to Nora's brother and sister. They seem to be ignoring Nora, or not paying attention to her. I think that is why she is being so noisy.
7-8	Notice how Nora is sitting under the table while her parents scold her. Now her parents are paying attention to her by scolding her to be quiet. Even though she did something wrong, she still got their attention, or got them to notice her.

9-10	Nora's dad needs to help give Jack a bath because he is just a baby. Babies need a lot of attention because they are dependent on their parents to keep them safe. Baby Jack can't take a bath without his mom or dad. Nora's mom needs to help Kate. I'm thinking Nora's parents are giving all their attention to Kate and Jack. Nora is being ignored . It looks like she is dropping the muffin tin on the floor so her mother will notice her.
12-13	She continued to make lots of noise. She knocked over the chairs. She ran down the stairs with the kite. (point to Nora on page 15) Look, she is still alone. She is still not getting the attention that she wants. They are only shouting at her to be quiet.
14,15, 16	Since Jack is a baby, he is dependent on his parents to take care of him. It looks like Nora's older sister Kate needs help with her reading.
22-26	It got really quiet and everyone in the family finally noticed that Nora was not there.	20	Nora felt like she had to run away to get her parents attention. She was probably thinking, "If I disappear, maybe that will get their attention."
